and Center Creeks on the eastern side of the valley.¹ At about the same time a number of settlers began work along Snake Creek on the west side. This was the beginning of what later came to be known as Midway.

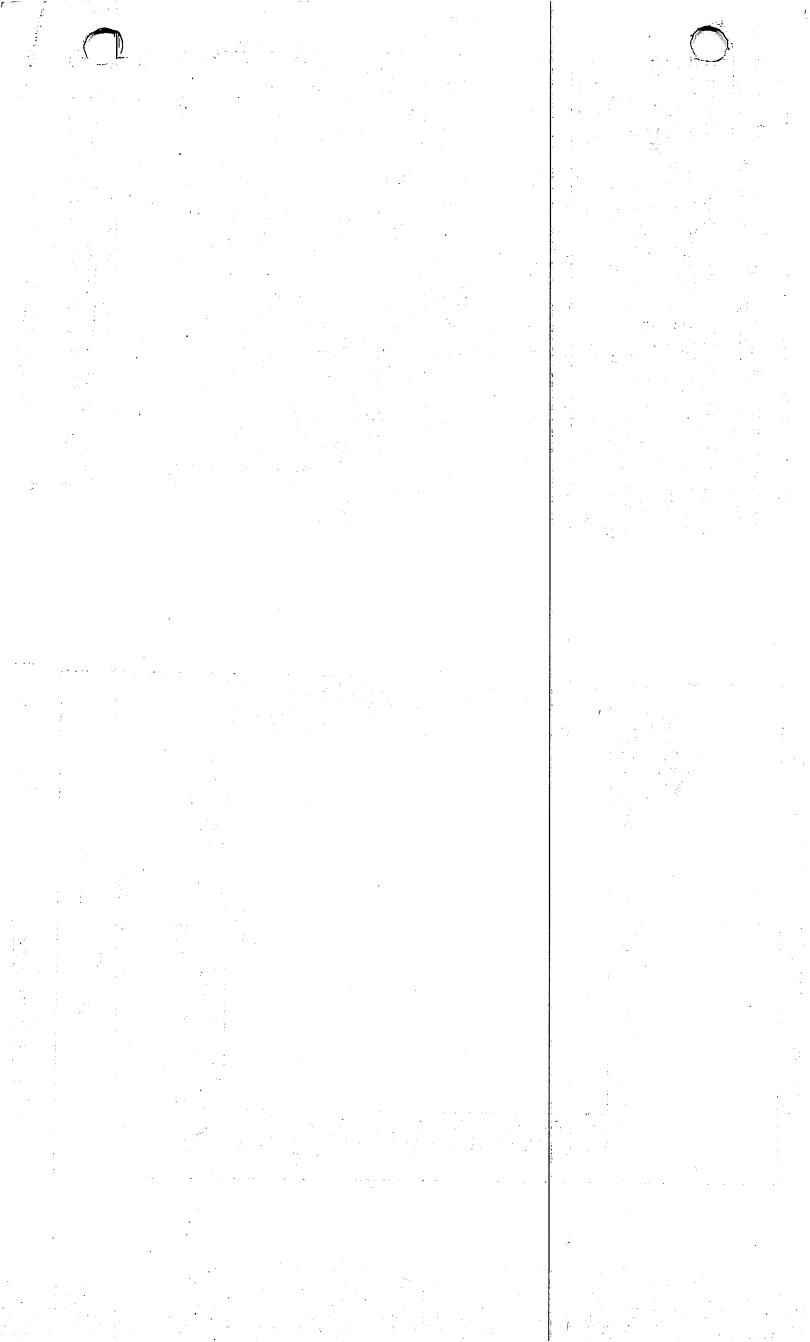

At first there was no localized settlement. In the summer of 1859 a group consisting of Jeremiah Robey, Sidney Epperson, Mark Smith, David Wood, Jesse McCarrell, and Edwin Bronson put a crop of grain on the choicest lands bordering Snake Creek.² This was followed by a period of cabin and corral building. He was baptized and confirmed a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at Limington. County of Warwick, England on July 20, 1850, the only member of his family to join the Latter-day Saints Church

On the 9th of January, 1854, he married Esther Richman Dabling in Sleaford, England. She was the daughter of Mathew and Elizabeth Tagg Richman and her birth date was April 7, 1823 in E. Moulton, Lincoln County, England. She was baptized and confirmed a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Pennyhill.

Holbeach Lin England on July 15, 1848. They left Liverpool, England, on Febru ary 2 1855 on the ship Sidons and arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on April 23. 1855. They lived in Warwick. Cecil County, Maryland, for several years. Their only daughter. Elizabeth Ann. was born there on March 13, 1858. She died February 13, 1860, and Mrs. Dabling's mother. Elizabeth Richman died in Warwick, Md., October 22. 1858

Mr. and Mrs. Dabling came to Utah in 1862. There is no family record of the company they traveled with or the route they took. It is known that Mrs. Dabling's father. Mathew Richman, who was with them, died July 17, 1862 and is buried at Florence, Nebraska. They settled at Mound City, (Midway) where their only son, George Alfred Gordon Diffing was born July 20, 1864.

George Dablin, was a blacksmith by trade and his wife. Esther, was known as an excellent cook and a thrifty and prudent housekeeper. They were called to serve a mission in Arizona in 1876 and they lived in a United Order Colony there Mr. Dabling served as a blacksmith and butcher and Mrs. Dabling supervised work in the kitchen and served also as midwife. They were released from this mission in 1877. They :CESSARY EXPLANATIONS returned to Wasatch County settling in Wailsburg

He opened a blacksmith shop in Walls

burg, which he operated until his death on June 6, 1887. He was active in his church, serving as superintendent of Sunday School in Wallsburg Ward at the time of his death. He was a large, muscular man with a pleasant manner and a fine singing voice.
